Sunday 11th November

Tango Your Life - Dir. Chan Park

Through the stories told by people who have been dancing for up to 70 years, as well as the impressions of those who have visited Buenos Aires to experience the dance in its native country, tango is shown to be an experience of danced emotion inspired by music and shared between partners through embrace.

*Documentary Film Screening | Doors open at 5pm, 5:30pm start | £5
TLC Studio, St. Barnabas Church Hall, Lodge Road, Southampton SO14 6QS*

Monday 12th November

The Screening Sex Project presents: The Rape of Recy Taylor

Dir. Nancy Buirski | Cert. 15

Preceded by an introduction from the film's distributor Johanna von Fischer in conversation with Solent University's Head of Film, Darren Kerr. Nancy Buirski's 'The Rape of Recy Taylor' examines the largely unpunished sexual violence against women of colour in 1940s America.

*Feature Documentary Screening (91min) | Doors open at 7pm, 7:30pm start | Free Advance Booking
Sonar Cinema (LT1), Andrews Building, Solent University, East Park Terrace, Southampton, SO14 0YN*
